I. Introduction of Anqing Normal University

Anqing Normal University (AQNU) is located in Anqing, a famous national historical and cultural city, a national civilized city and an excellent tourist city in China. The university enjoys a long history; it is also the birthplace of higher education in Anhui province in modern times. The university has two campuses, Longshan campus and Linghu campus, which cover an area of 2,800 mu (about 1.87 square kilometers) altogether. There are 17 colleges and 72 undergraduate majors, covering 10 discipline categories, including literature, economics, history, law, education, science, engineering, management, agriculture and art. There are 11 academic master programs (Marxism, Chinese Language and Literature, Mathematics, Chemistry, Statistics, Education, Chinese History, Ecology, Information and Communication Engineering, Environmental Science and Engineering, Software Engineering) and 11 professional master programs (Education, Law, Sports, Translation, Journalism and Communication, Fine Arts, International Business, Social Work, Master of Teaching Chinese to Speakers of Other Languages, Applied Psychology, and Mechanical Engineering). The university now has faculty of 1,480 and more than 29,200 full-time students. AQNU has formed friendship and cooperation with a number of overseas universities, including Salisbury University, University of Central Arkansas, University of Hildesheim in Germany, and Hanseo University in South Korea. It has carried out effective cooperation with these universities in terms of faculty exchange, students exchange, teaching and research, etc.

II. Programs Overview

The AQNU Summer Institute (SI) is a 2-week summer programme that brings together secondary school students to explore various academic fields and gain insights into future studies at AQNU. The SI challenges students' inquisitive minds and immerses them into the fascinating university teachings.

By joining the SI, students can explore a variety of subject areas through short courses taught by AQNU scholars. Enjoy the vibrant student life at the lushly green campus which also provides a peaceful backdrop for studies.

Gain valuable insights into adapting to the university learning environment, receiving guidance and support from AQNU students, faculty and staff members.
 Connect and build meaningful relationships with peers from diverse backgrounds.
 Make informed decisions about their academic and intellectual pursuits via a transformative and empowering learning journey. Earn a maximum of two credits which may be applied towards future undergraduate studies at AQNU (with terms and conditions applied).
